

Why Don't People Quit Cigarettes?

Everyone knows cigarettes are not good for them. Everyone knows they spend too much money on cigarettes.

So, why do people continue to smoke? And better yet, why is it so hard for so many people to quit cigarettes? 70% of smokers want to quit. But they don't. Why?

Because we are all different.

- Some people do not want to put on weight
- Some people do not want to go through the withdrawal symptoms.
- Some people do not think they have the will power to quit cigarettes
- Some people smoke to relieve stress and relax
- Some people are addicted to cigarettes

The biggest reason of all - Because smoking cigarettes is not actually under your control.

How many cigarettes a day do you actually enjoy? If you are like most, maybe 4-5. All the others you smoke almost unconsciously. Smoking cigarettes is usually done by your unconscious mind.

It is like driving. When you first learned how to drive you had to consciously think about it. But what do you do now when you drive? You go down the road, eating your lunch, talking on your phone, and playing with the stereo. You drive unconsciously.

When you first started to smoke you did it consciously. But now it is something your unconscious mind does automatically.

So unless you deal with the individual reasons unique to each person, you will not have any luck in quitting cigarettes long term.

This System Makes Quitting Cigarettes Easy

Have You Tried To Quit Cigarettes Before?

Why didn't it work?

- Did you not want to deal with the withdrawal symptoms?

It even goes one step further. This system is pro-active in removing a lot of the common reasons people fail, before they even happen.

For example, with this system we help find and create new habits so you don't gain any weight from eating more when you quit cigarettes.
